iPad Bluetooth Keyboard Case

Adds versatility, function and protection

Part No.: 450263

Protects and Creates a Wireless iPad Workstation
Get more hands-on use and productivity from an iPad with the MANHATTAN iPad Bluetooth Keyboard Case. Ideal for composing email, updating blogs, texting and more, the MANHATTAN iPad Bluetooth Keyboard Case packs functionality and protection into a single, stylish case. When closed, its attractive, leather-like padded cover with magnetic closures secures and protects an iPad from daily hazards and mishandling without obstructing any ports or controls. A soft microsuede interior helps keep iPad surfaces clean and free of scratches. When ready to get to work, the MANHATTAN iPad Bluetooth Keyboard Case unfolds into a sturdy, flat stand with a built-in, full-function Bluetooth keyboard that supplies up to 45 hours of wireless typing power. Silent, spill-proof silicone keys help make entering large amounts of text faster and easier. Its multi-angle, hands-free landscape positions put an iPad in the right perspective for watching movies, viewing pictures and presentations or playing games.
